

18 November 2020 | Webinar

Guidance for the Interim

Discussing the San José principles and bilateral agreements to promote sustainable development and integrity in carbon markets

The meeting is going to start soon.

Please note that this event is going to be recorded. The recording will be made publicly available after the session. By participating in the event you consent to the publication of the recording.

18 November 2020 | Webinar

Guidance for the Interim

Discussing the San José principles and bilateral agreements to promote sustainable development and integrity in carbon markets

Welcome and Introduction

Christof Arens, Wuppertal Institute

Guidance for the Interim Housekeeping rules

We intend to have an informal meeting for discussion and networking, hence:

- Speakers: please use camera
- If you have questions: type them into the question section in the control panel
- Today's webinar is recorded and the slides will be shared afterwards
- Technical issues: please email to Miriam Ruß, miriamru@wupperinst.org

- Updates on the San José principles process
Felipe de León, Ministry of Environment and Energy, Costa Rica
- Principles to ensure high ambition and integrity:
The bilateral Art. 6 agreement between Peru and Switzerland
Lorenzo Alejandro Eguren Ciurlizza, Ministry of Environment, Peru
- Sharing of views - Reactions to the principles process and the agreement
 - V.K. Duggal, Asian Development Bank,
 - Axel Michaelowa, Perspectives Climate Group,
 - Owen Hewlett, The Gold Standard
- Q & A session, please send written questions through the question panel
- Ideas and options to promote sustainable development and form a community of practice – presentation and short poll
Karen Olsen, Sustainable Development Initiative & UNEP DTU Partnership